PATRONS' SCHEME

Welcome to the Fuel Festival Patrons' Scheme.
...HELPING MAKE THE FUEL FESTIVAL VERY SPECIAL...

The newly established Patrons' Scheme is seeking supporters of the Festival who will donate annually to the ongoing Festival work to ensure its continued success.

The Fuel Festival of NZ Theatre will be held 24 June till 4 July 2010
& The Fuel Festival of NZ Music runs next year 20-28 May 2011.

The Festival has initiated a special programme "The Patrons' Scheme" where individuals, families, and small businesses can provide financial support to the Festival.

FOR THEIR SUPPORT PATRONS WILL:

- Know they are helping make possible a special Festival for Hamilton.
- Receive a number of complimentary Festival tickets allocated by the Festival Director.
- Be invited to attend Festival launch and Patrons functions
- Be sent regular newsletters with updates on the Festival either electronically or by post
- Have their name included in the register of Festival Patrons (unless otherwise requested) in the Festival Programme and on the Festival website.

The Fuel Festival is all about sustaining a dynamic and exciting cultural event for Hamilton and the Waikato.

Top flight New Zealand theatre and New Zealand music will be presented to Hamilton audiences.

The Festival is committed to a totally professional approach – from the performers it chooses to its management, marketing and presentation.

The Patrons' Scheme is seeking the support of both individuals and families, as well as small businesses, and has structured the cost of membership accordingly.
